Michel Laferrière Research Awards 2023

CALL FOR SUBMISSIONS

CIESC/SCECI is issuing a call for submissions for the Michel Laferrière Research Awards to be presented at the 2023 Annual Conference. The awards recognize meritorious research studies submitted in fulfillment of the requirements for Master's and Doctoral degrees. There are two awards, one for the best Master's level thesis and one for the best Doctoral thesis.

PURPOSE: The purpose of the award is to give recognition to outstanding research in the field of comparative and international education, and to facilitate communication about that research. It is hoped that such recognition will encourage and stimulate further high quality research by graduate students.

ELIGIBILITY: The candidate must have completed their Master's or Doctoral degree in 2022, in the field of comparative and international education.

CRITERIA: Submissions will be adjudicated according to the following criteria:
  a) Significance of the problem addressed
  b) The conceptualization and design of the research
  c) The potential value of the research for theory development, improved practice and future research in comparative and international education
  d) Writing quality

AWARD WINNERS will receive:
a) Certificate of Accomplishment presented at the CSSE Conference;
b) Cash award
c) Andrew Skinner stipend for travel to attend CSSE 2023
d) Complimentary membership to CIESC

SUBMISSION: Using the google form links below, candidates will submit 1.) An electronic copy (e.g. pdf) of a signed nomination letter from their supervisor.
  2.) An electronic copy (e.g., pdf) of their thesis
  3.) A short summary/overview of the thesis of no longer than 15 pages (including references). This can directly draw from sections of the thesis' introduction and conclusion.
